BUILDERS DIVIDE WITH ROANOKE

Newport News Wins Last, but Tigers Have Easy Time in First.

Newport News, Va., August 28 .- By splitting to-day's double-header, New-port News made it an even break in series of four games with the Reanoke Tigers. Roanoke easily won the first game to-day by bunching hits with wild pitches, passes and errors. Eard was in fine form and was never in danger of being scored on. pitched Gardin, the locals pounding the left-hander for four singles and two runs in the eighth, and thus winning Umpire Kelly came in for some severe panning from the crowd during the second game.

Geyer's hitting was the feature of the second game, the old man slam-ming out three hits in four times up, two of them being doubles, and scoring enough runs to win the game. Barton crosses up the opposition in the second, when, with two on, Gardin deliberately passed Matthews to take chances on Barton and Gillespie, the midget inflelder. Barton hit a long fly to centre, scoring Geyer. The tackles of promise.

Plenty of Ends.

The coaches need not lose any sleep in casting around for good end material. Unless some star, thus far unheralded, happens along, Ed. Finlay, who hails from the shadow of Lookout Mountain, in old Tennessee, will again be found at his post when the gong sounds, and Lyman, Loretz or Gillette at the other end of the line. Lyman's performances in the practice games toward the end of last session bordered ward the end of last session bordered on the sensational. Time and again, playing as an end on the scrub team, he got away for a touchdown against the 'varsity. In fact, hardly a day passed that he did not prove a thorn in the side of the regulars. It will be recalled that in the Georgetown game he was sent in the line-up late in the

Charlottesville, Va., August 23.—
Realizing that a hard schedule faces the Virginia football team of 1913, Read Coach Rice Warren, who has been spending the summer on a fruit farm near Ivy, this county, will summon candidates for the eleven to assemble on Lambeth Field, at the University, on Monday, September 1.

The decision to call together the squad some two weeks earlier than for several seasons past is indication that a determined effort is going to Gooch at Quarter. "Bobby" Gooch will be found in his old place at quarterback, a position he has filled with such credit to himself for two seasons past. He has taken on more flesh and should show increased power on the offensive the company season. He is quite an adopt when clever cadet cleven from the Virginia Military Institute came over from Lexington and won a decisive victory.

Reference to the schedule will show that Virginia, by taking on the University of Georgia, will battle the coming season with two of the leading teams of the far South, as Vanderbilis to come to Charlottesville the first Saturday in November for a return game. Vanderbilt was declared the best team in all the Southland last gear, Virginia will go to Atlanta October 25 to meet Georgia. That these two big games should have been scheduled for successive Saturdays, appears a little unfortunate, but if the eleven attains its top form by the latter part of October it may prove best after all.

Virginia should start the season this year with a number of last year's veterans in the line-up. Captain Carter, better known as "Heavy" Carter, will be found at his old place at guard, and should far and should show increased power on the offensive the coming season. He is quite an adept when it comes to trying a forward pass. He curacy. He is known as a heady player, has an unusuat amount of pep for one so young, and, barring injury, should finish his football career in a blaze of glory. It is rumored that next session will be his last in college, though he would he eligible for the eleven another year, should he decide though he would be eligible for the eleven another year, should not at the Episcopal High School, was subquarter last year, and should show improvement the coming season. He is a clever ground gainer, and knows how to pick his way through a broken field.

Likely backfield candidates from last year's squad, who will be found its to tackle South Carolina, the Virginia Military Institute, Georgia, Vanderbilt, Georgetown and North Care.

Virginia should start the season this year with a number of last year's veterans in the line-up. Captain Carter, better known as "Heavy" Carter, will be found at his old place at guard, and he has no superior in the South, and very few in the North, for that matter. Despite his 220 pounds, he handles himself as if he were a lightweight, and is not afraid to make a diving tackle. On the defense, he is indeed a tower of strength. When it comes to blocking plays aimed at his side of the line, he has few equals. He is a pretty sure tackler, though his arms are short. On the offensive, he is generally able to open up good holes for his backs, and is sometimes called upon to carry the ball. He frequently gets down the field ahead of the ends.

Filling Joe Wood's Place.

> So much for the old men. On next Sunday something will be said of the football material expected to enter with the freshman class. PHILLIES' HOPE THROTTLED

Philadelphia, August 23.—The Pirates throttled the last hopes the Phillies had of catching the Giants by taking both ends of a double-header to-day. 10 to 5 and 13 to 8. The visitors felf on Scaton and Marshall in the fifth and scored nine runs. McQuillan was easy for the Phillies, yielding two doubles, a single and a home run in one inning, but Hendrix proved a puz-zle. Byrne was up twice in the fifth and made two doubles.

In the second the Phillies drove Cooper from the box in the first uning, but the Pirates came back in the third inning and started a swatfest, getting seventeen hits for twenty-six bases. Seaton, Brennan and Imlay were the victims.

Munager Dooin to-day traded In-fielder Dolan and a cash consideration to the Pirates for Byrne and Camnitz. The scores:
